Let's Get Organized to Defeat the War on Workers

Saturday February 21, 3:00 p.m.

Protesters chant "black lives matter" as police continue to kill hundreds of African Americans with impunity every year. Low-wage workers demand $15 an hour, still a poverty wage. Dock workers locked out, teachers threatened with arbitrary dismissal, 400,000+ immigrants deported yearly: this is Wall Street's America today. The same Democratic and Republican parties that brutalize and jail black youth, break up immigrant families and wage imperialist wars around the world are on a warpath against the unions. Yet labor misleaders give up without a fight. Only the multiracial working class has the power to go beyond symbolic protests and shut down the capitalist system of racist cop violence, union-busting and immigrant-bashing. For that we need to build a leadership with a program and the determination to take on and defeat the bosses and their state. An example of how to do that was the Minneapolis Teamster strike of 1934. CSWP seeks to organize a core of worker-activists to oust the labor bureaucrats, break with the Democrats and all the bosses' parties, and fight for a workers government. Join us for a film showing and discussion of what it will take to transform the unions into genuine defenders of all workers and the oppressed.
